EDUCATIONAL COSTS - GRADUATE APPLICANT

The current (2019-2020 academic year) overall cost of one academic year for an international graduate student is $34,660. Note that visa granting authorities require an F-1 visa applicant to demonstrate sufficient funding for the entire term of their education. Costs for the 2020-2021 academic year will be announced in July 2020.

This outline is provided as a reference and reflects the cost of taking a full-time credit load of nine (9) credits each semester. Your actual costs may differ from this information. Additional credits are $774 per credit. You should also consider travel and other costs as well when planning for your education.

When applying, each applicant must verify support in the amount of at least $34,660 (YEAR). Note that graduate costs are based on a per credit basis and that this listing is based on a 9 credit semester course load.

YEAR		SEMESTER
tuition	$13,932	tuition	$6,966

health insurance (estimated)	$2,800	health insurance (estimated)	$1,400
TOTAL *	$34,660	TOTAL *	$17,330

Verification of additional funding is required for each dependent: $6,000 for spouse / $3,600 for each child (YEAR).

Acceptable notarized financial support documentation verifying that you possess sufficient funding can be provided in the form of:

- ✓ Notarized bank statement(s) from checking, savings, and/or certificate of deposit.
- ✓ Notarized letter from bank on letterhead, stating the date the account opened, average balance, and current balance.
- ✓ Official scholarship sponsorship letter or memorandum verifying amount, source, and dates of award.

AID FUNDING

Please be aware of the following:

- F-1 Visa graduate students are not eligible for federal or state sponsored financial aid.
- The University does not provide scholarship funding for F-1 Visa graduate students.
- F-1 graduate students are welcome to apply for available graduate assistantship positions.
- International students may be able to borrow funding through private student loans if they have a U.S. citizen act as a co-borrower. The University's Office of Financial Aid offers a list of recommended private student loan providers, most of which offer international student loans. The list is housed at: <https://www.elmselect.com/link/query?schoolId=648>
